WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH MAYSVILLE?

The politician will think of his party; the business man of money; the doctor of health; the lawyer of society; the teacher of the children, and the preacher—

Did you ever stop to think how the preacher must touch every side of life and have something helpful for every man in every kind of trouble? Unless we get saved politically and financially and hygienically there is still something lost about us.

I shall try to show you that Christianity is worth while in every sense tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the Third Street Christian Church.

I want 500 men to hear the message. There may be some criticisms about the way this campaign has been conducted. It may not be very dignified, but I have never heard of dignity bringing 500 men to church, and I want them.

I have used the best means I know to reach as many men as the Third street church will hold.

One final word to those who may think I do not mean them: I do, Plain Mr. Man, Mr. Saloonkeeper, Mr. Worldly Man, there will not be a word intentionally said which is not kind and fair and square.

The subject will be, "What's the Matter With Maysville?" Once more, you are invited to come.

ROBERT L. CLARK, Pastor.

Captain Ben Smith with his sweeping machine was out this morning giving the brick streets a thorough cleaning for Sunday appearance.

The Knights of Columbus have declared the proposed trip to Lexington tomorrow off and instead will put the work on here the first Sunday in May.

TITANIC LOSS

Blamed On J. B. Ismay, Director of White Star Line, Who Escaped

WASHINGTON, April 19th.—An indictment rarely equalled in vigor of J. Bruce Ismay managing director, and other officials of the White Star Line, holding them responsible for the Titanic disaster, was delivered in the Senate today by Senator Rayner of Maryland, who pictured Ismay as the "officer primarily responsible for the whole disaster, who has reached his destination in safety and unharmed."

"I have not the slightest doubt that the Northern route was taken in obedience to Mr. Ismay's direct orders and that, with full warning he risked the life of his entire ship to make a speedy passage."

CLEAN UP!

Mayor Lee and Mrs. S. F. Reed, President of Woman's Club Backing Movement

Next Monday and Tuesday are the days set apart by Mayor Lee to clean up Mayville, and every householder, house-keeper and house-owner is appointed and ordered to clean his or her premises from the old house to the kitchen.

These clean-up days are going to be an annual and compulsory common law, and next year we're going to have two days in the fall and two days in the spring to take away all trash and put every yard in Mayville in tip-top condition.

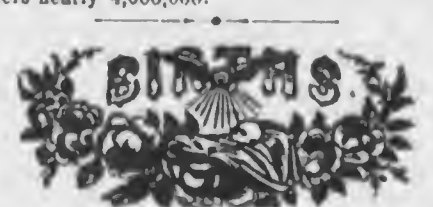

Tonight at the Washington theater and at Pastime theater there will be displayed on screens the notices of the designated clean up days, April 22d and 23d.

Mrs. Stanley F. Reed, President of the Woman's Club, will make the rounds of the city this afternoon in an auto on which the clean-up date will be displayed in large letters.

Have your trash raked up and piled up ready for the city carts to remove next Monday and Tuesday.

The slogan in Mayville henceforth is to be: "WAR ON DIRT AND DISHIRE, AND FOR A CLEAN AND BEAUTIFUL MAYSVILLE!"

The Christian population of India now numbers nearly 4,000,000.

FOR PRESIDENT, WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

If people couldn't waste their money on foolish things they'd waste it just as much on sensible things.

There are now fifty-seven Negro saving banks in the United States, and the number is increasing at a good rate. They are nearly all located in the Southern states, Alabama having seven, Mississippi eleven, Virginia eleven.

A Circuit judge recently said: "The certainty, instead of the severity, of punishment, will do more than anything else to end crime." This is true. England has less crime than any other nation, and her courts know no such thing as justifiable lawlessness. It makes no difference what the provocation, law should be respected, and the sooner a penalty is fixed for every offense, the sooner will the masses obey the law.—New Orleans Advocate.

Fourteen million pounds of food judged unfit for human consumption were destroyed in the City of New York during the year 1911, according to official reports made public recently. This is a tremendous and wicked waste. Most of it was spoiled by being kept too long, either in cold storage or elsewhere, for the purpose of securing higher prices. The time may come when men will be lynched for destroying good food, or for refusing to sell it at the market price before it spoils.—Ex.

While Kentuckians admire Champ Clark as a brilliant and gifted man, few will admit that he measures up to the presidential standard. He is good in running debate, an adroit floor leader and attractive speaker; but there is a quantity missing, indefinable, perhaps, but there nevertheless, that would fit him for Chief Magistrate of this great Nation. Thoughtful, discerning men understand this, and many are now supporting him in this state, in opposition to their better judgment, simply because he was born within Kentucky's borders. Is it not time to put aside sentiment and go in for the best interests of the whole country?—Cynthiana Democrat.

Political Pickings

Frankfort Journal: Woodrow Wilson is believed to have ceased to take the Courier-Journal.

Washington Star: W. J. Bryan's dislikes are not as numerous as they were, but those which survive are as strong as ever.

Chicago Record-Herald: It begins to look as if a large force of police may be needed at the Republican National Convention in June.

St. Louis Globe Democrat: Nobody ought to feel hurt by the fact that the Republican party is now, as always, bigger than any one man.

Brooklyn Eagle: Lorimer of Illinois; has not mistaken his calling. As a hoodoo in politics he is simply unapproached and unapproachable.

Lexington Herald: It will be noticed that it was not until Illinois and Pennsylvania both declared for Roosevelt that Taft got mad and jumped on Mexico.

Lexington Herald: The terrible fate of the passengers on the luckless Titanic will probably suggest to those who are sailing in the Roosevelt craft the advisability of having plenty of life preservers left when that frail bark hits the Chicago iceberg.

Even as bad as the Titanic disaster was, some of the "Titanic poetry" is worse.

The investigation, following all big calamities caused by human carelessness, calls to mind the action of a village fire department after a destructive blaze, in which the fire engine was found to be out of commission:

"Be it ordained, that hereafter the fire engine shall be inspected ten days before a fire breaks out."

The New York Journal of Commerce is a free trade paper, but it opposes the Democratic bill to abolish the tariff on sugar on the ground that this is one of the most productive sources of needed revenue, about the most readily and cheaply collected, and altogether the most widely diffused in its effect of all tariff duties, for everybody contributes and the burden is slight. The same paper rubs it into the Democrats for trying to make up the loss of revenue from the proposed removal of the sugar duties by providing for an income tax under the guise of a special excise tax, and says it antagonizes the principles laid down by the Supreme Court in declaring that an income tax that was not apportioned among the States according to population was unconstitutional.

Foolish Philosophy.

The devil claims that when people are about to make a mistake he whispers to them: "Don't do that."

If you want your daughters to become good piano players, reverse present conditions; let them practice six hours a day and go to school an hour a day. Learning to play a piano well is more difficult than to learn to read and write.

When a man gets along all right when his wife is away it is a sign that he doesn't get along very well when she's at home.

It may at least be said of divorced people that they had the courage of their convictions.

When you do a thing because "it is expected of you" it is usually your duty.

What is there in this story that exercise is good for us? Women exercise less than men, and live longer.

Marriage is a thing to be thought over very carefully beforehand, and that's why everybody does it afterward.

The Pennsylvania Dutchmen also kicked Champ Clark's houn' dawg aroun'.

When you receive a compliment, look it over for flattery.

When there is something plainly wrong with a man, and people are not certain what it is, the favorite guess is fits.

A Chicago man offers to teach anyone by mail, in an hour's time, to play the piano equal to a music master. Many people will not only buy this system, but believe, after an hour's practice, that they can play as well as anyone. Indeed I believe that many of the piano players I know were taught by this system.

Only members of the Musician's Union have a right to make music, and finally there will be a protest because you whistle.

HARD LUCK.

Corning, Kansas, Gazette. A farmer near Corning whose son was an applicant for a position under the Government, but who had been repeatedly turned down, said: "Well, it's hard luck, but John has missed the civil service again. It looks like they just won't have him." "What was the trouble?" "Well, he was short on spelling and geography and missed party fur in mathematics." "What is he going to do about it?" "I dunno. Times is mighty hard and I reckon he'll have to go back to teaching school for a living."

OUR WEEKLY SPORT LETTER

BY C. H. ZIEBER.

CINCINNATI, O., April 19th, 1912.

There seems to be no limit to the interest and enthusiasm in baseball. It is only a few years since a crowd of 15,000 people at an opening game was looked upon as something extraordinary, while 10,000 or 12,000 were considered highly satisfactory. The eight inaugural games in the two big leagues this year attracted over 100,000 people—an average of more than 20,000 to a game—and next year promises more. Here in Cincinnati 27,000 people paid to watch the first battle, this being an increase of more than 6,000 over any previous attendance record, yet despite the size of the crowd, they were more comfortable than on any previous "big day," for the reason that the new stands of the Cincinnati Club, generally conceded to be the most complete in the world, can seat 25,000 people, while the standing room is so commodious that several thousand more people could have been accommodated without making any of them uncomfortable.

The start which the Reds have made in the fight for honors has been a most satisfactory one. In the series of games played so far with the Cubs and Pirates, both of whom finished higher in the race than the Reds last season, Manager O'Day's men have exhibited qualities that are certain to make them feared over the entire National League circuit. It is particularly satisfactory to note the aggressiveness displayed by the team when the other fellows have the lead. In all the early games the Reds have been compelled to fight their way to the front against odds, and in every instance they have responded to the call and pulled victory out of defeat. There is no doubt that Manager O'Day has made over a number of last year's Reds so that they are greatly improved. This, with the fact that there is absolute harmony and discipline on the team, will make for much better results this year than in many seasons past.

It is often said that a baseball team is so stronger than its substitutes. This fact was strongly brought home to the management of the Chicago Club last season, when the absence of Chance and Evans put the Cubs out of the running for the flag, their underlings failing to deliver the same brand of goods for which the two stars were famous. On the Pittsburgh team the absence of Wagner at a time when the Pirates were going their best, undoubtedly prevented the Smoketown from having a look-in on the pennant. The Reds opened the season with two of their regulars off the line-up, Captain Mike Mitchell and Third Baseman Ed Grant being the absentees. However, one would never think that Marsens and Phelan, who took their respective places, were "understudies." Neither of these regulars could have done better, which indicates that the Red's strength will be even, no matter what happens. Mitchell and Grant may be back on their jobs next Sunday, when the Reds meet the Cardinals for the first time, and are certain to be on deck when the Pirates come on Sunday, April 28th. But whether they are or not, the team will not be lacking in strength in their respective positions.

The fight fans are keeping their eyes close to the ground in order to find out where Jack Johnson and Jim Flynn are going to have their little set-to on the Fourth of July. Jack Curley, who has the affair in charge, has been making numerous promises on the subject of the announcement, but up to the present writing he hasn't divulged the secret. The fact that no definite place has been fixed as yet is going to make the followers of the fight game a little chary on patronizing the battle, with the result that box office receipts will not come up to expectations. So far as actual results are concerned, the admirers of Flynn will be allowed to write their own tickets, as they say on the race track when a horse that hasn't a chance to win runs.

American-bred horses are not figuring strongly in the big English turf event this year. At the Epsom Downs meeting, which opens next Monday, only two American horses are mentioned prominently in the big stakes, these being Sir Martin, who, it is believed would have won the Derby in 1910 but for an accident, and Harry Payne Whitney's All Gold, both of which are entered in the City and Suburban, to be run next week. Harry Maher continues to uphold the prowess of the American riders in the big English races.

Despite the fact that it was officially announced last year that there would be no more motor car racing at the Indianapolis Speedway, the famous track now is being placed in the best possible condition, for the 500-mile event, which will be run off on Decoration Day, with every indication of having as large an audience, as large an entry list and as large a number of casualties as last season. Up in Milwaukee they are preparing the roads for the annual Vanderbilt Cup race, indicating that interest in the automobile racing game isn't dormant by a darn site.

NEW LABOR BILL A TAFT POLICY

Liability and Compensation Measure Progressive.

JUSTICE IS ITS OBJECT.

President Approves Proposed Legislation Making Federal Labor Laws Fit Modern Conditions—Legal Machinery Simplified.

As the result of the personal interest of President Taft in all matters affecting the workmen of the country, congress has before it today a comprehensive bill on employers' liability and workmen's compensation which is recognized as one of the most progressive of the many achievements of the Taft administration. The bill was reported by a commission appointed by President Taft pursuant to a joint resolution of congress passed on June 23, 1910, and it was recently sent to congress by the president, accompanied with a message recommending its passage. As drafted the measure provides an exclusive remedy and compensation for accidental injuries resulting in disabilities or death to employees of common carriers engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the District of Columbia.

This comprehensive legislation is the direct outcome of the general unsatisfactoriness of labor legislation passed by congress in recent years and is illustrative of the Taft method of reaching an admitted evil by a painstaking investigation followed by carefully considered laws. As is well known, the first employers' liability law passed in the last administration was declared unconstitutional by the courts. A new law to take its place was passed under the present administration, but it was generally understood at the time that the comprehensive measure now before congress was to follow, both as to liability and compensation, as soon as the necessary investigation into the subject could be made. The result is that the workmen of the United States, so far as they can be reached by federal law, will soon be working under one of the most enlightened labor laws on record.

Provision is made in the bill, as drafted tentatively, that every common carrier engaged in interstate or foreign commerce shall pay compensations in the amounts specified in the bill to any of its employees who sustain personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment and resulting in his disability or to his dependents in case of death. It is provided in the bill that the injured employee shall have medical attendance and surgical aid when necessary, the last mentioned being limited to $300. The monthly wages of an employee are deemed to be twenty-six times the established day's pay, and $50 is the minimum monthly wage payment. It is also provided that all compensation shall be paid monthly unless computed to a lump sum.

Death benefits are provided for at a specific percentage of the man's wages to be paid to the widow with an increase in the amount when there are dependent children, and in case of no dependents the payment of the burial expenses is required. The matter of personal injury compensation is also covered in a fair and equitable provision.

Another feature of the proposed act is a clear definition of the term "dependent" as well as of what constitutes an "injury" and an "employee." Legal complications are provided for, reports of accidents, payments and operations under the law to the interstate commerce commission are required, and it is declared that the proposed act shall take effect on July 1, 1912, and cited as "the federal compensation act of 1912."

In its investigations of this subject the commission determined at the outset that in substance the doctrines of the common law originating under comparatively simple conditions were unjust as applied to the complex relations of master and servant. The use of complicated machinery, steam and electricity has had the effect of increasing the deplorable antagonism between employer and employee and often giving a few injured employees large and frequently extravagant damages, while the great majority have been left to bear the entire burden without any recompense whatever.

At the time of the adoption of the common law rules of liability industrial conditions were radically different from those of today. The number of employees was smaller because there were few big industrial plants. The business carried on was small in extent, the appliances used in the work consisted largely of hand tools, while the power was simple in character, with little danger to the employee. Under such conditions the rules of common law originated.

Today there is a vast difference. President Taft, in the message which transmitted the report of the commission to congress, aptly says, in speaking of the proposed bill, "that it is one of the great steps of progress toward a satisfactory solution of an important phase of the controversies between employers and employees that have been proposed within the last two or three decades. The old rules of liability under the common law were adapted to a different age and condition and were evidently drawn by men imbued with the importance of preserving the employment from hardensome or unjust liabilities. It was treated as a personal matter of each employee, and the employees were put on a level of dealing which, however it may have been in the past, certainly creates injustice to the employee under the present conditions.

The attention of congress to the great injustice of the present system was called by President Taft. He mentioned the fact that often the recovery of large sums in damage verdicts did not result in actual benefit to the injured person on account of the heavy expenses in litigation. The president expressed the belief that these burdens would disappear with the enactment of the proposed law, since the counsel fees are limited to a reasonable amount.

As further stated by the president, "the great object of the proposed law is to secure justice to the weaker party under existing modern conditions." He also declared that he would use his influence to aid in the enactment of the proposed law before the adjournment of the present session of congress.

My New Kentucky Home.

The dirt's piled high in My Old Kentucky Home,

"The springtime: the streets are in gray;

They can't shake off that personal look of gloom,

For the street sweeper never comes their way.

The young folks make mud pies most anywhere,

In saucer, in wash-pail or cup,

By and by White Plague comes a 'knocking at the door,

So My Old Kentucky Home, CLEAN UP.

REFRAIN

Sweep some more, My Lady, O, Sweep some more, we pray,

We will join with you in the crusade for our home,

For a clean Kentucky Home—Begin today!

They hunt no more for the tin can and the trash,

In alley, in back yard and in street;

The rake and hoe they are never heard to clash

And the peace 'twixt the two has been complete,

The day goes by, but the weeds remain the same,

As when here Daniel Boone used to nap;

The time has come when we'll have to "force the game,"

So My Old Kentucky Home, CLEAN UP!

REFRAIN

The dirt must go and the germs must all "skidoo"

When every one does his little part;

A few more days and the town will look like new,

The quietest city on the chart,

Leave the fields and the bow and get busy with the hoe,

'Round mansion, 'round cottage and hut,

In a few more days 'twill be blazing hot, and so—

Well—My Old Kentucky Home, CLEAN UP!

A BLOOD MEDICINE WITHOUT ALCOHOL.

Recently it has been definitely proven by experiments on animals that alcohol lowers the germicidal power of the body and that alcohol paralyzes the white corpuscles of the blood and renders them unable to take up and destroy disease germs. Disease germs cause the death of over one-half of the human race. A blood medicine, made entirely without alcohol, which is a pure glyceric extract of roots, such as Bloodroot, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Mandrake and Stone root, has been extensively sold by druggists for the past forty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, the founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, and a physician of large experience and practice, was the first to make up an ALTERNATIVE EXTRACT of roots, without a particle of alcohol or narcotic.

"It is with the greatest pleasure, that I write to let you know of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine and self-treatment at home," writes Mrs. Wm. H. Hayes, of Leesport, Pa. "I suffered for three years from a running sore. Consulted four doctors but they failed to cure it. Finally I was told I was in consumption and would have to consult a specialist concerning my ear, that the blood must be put out before the wound would heal. A kind friend advised me to write to Dr. Pierce, which I did, and after seven months' use of the treatment the sore is healed, and I enjoy better health than I ever did. I dressed the wound with Dr. Pierce's 'All-Healing Salve' and took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pills' for my troubles. I shall always recommend your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Food at Leesport regulates liver and bowels.

WHICH IS BETTER—TRY AN EXPERIMENT OR PROFIT BY A MAYSVILLE CITIZEN'S EXPERIENCE

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, a lame, weak, or aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will read of so many so-called cures. Endorsed by strangers from far-away places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony. Read this case:

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than in all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They assure hundreds of dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: P. J. I had headaches, too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so, when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done as you told me. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health.

Echoes From the Titanic Disaster

President Taft ordered all flags on public buildings in United States at half mast.

Since President Taft has been in the White House Major Butt has traveled 50,000 miles or more, including his last trip abroad.

He brought over the Baltic when she was the biggest vessel on the seas, then the Adriatic, and lastly the Olympic. In the White Star service he was known as 'the old man.'

President Taft, with tear dimmed eyes, said: "When I heard that 'Archie' was on a ship that was lost with 1,600 of its people, I didn't want to see him again; I know he wouldn't come back."

William T. Stead, the famous English journalist, was so little alarmed that he calmly discussed with one of the passengers the probable height of the iceberg after the Titanic had shot into it.

According to this passenger, who was among those taken off in the boats, Mr. Stead, believing there was not the slightest danger of the vessel foundering, returned to his stateroom and presumably died there.

Captain Smith had been in the service of the White Star for 25 years. He has commanded the Republic—the old Republic, not the one the Florida sank off Nantucket Lightship—the Britannic, the Germanic and the Majestic.

Karl Behr, crack amateur tennis player, is among those who escaped from the Titanic. He is a Yale man and an all-around athlete, classed as one of the best tennis men in this country. In 1910 he was one of the American team that journeyed to Australia and won back the Davis cup.

Major Archibald Butt died like a soldier and a gentleman. He had not retired when the crash came. Shoulder to shoulder with John Jacob Astor, he helped to place women in the boats. When the steerage quarters were

SHE GAVE ALL HOPE

Relief In Cardul.

Meetez, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well."

One day, I decided to try some Cardul. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardul will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardul at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness. It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardul. Suppose you try it. It may be just the medicine you need.

thrown open and the first excited rush of men for the boats threatened to sweep the seamen off their feet, Major Butt held them. He had a revolver in his hand. Some one fired in the air twice. Perhaps three times in this moment. No steerage passenger was shot so far as can be ascertained, but the stampede was stopped. The last seen of Major Butt he was leaning over the rail; he waved his arm once in mate farewell and then turned back.

A poor Syrian woman, who said she was Mrs. Hahab, bound for Youngstown, O., carried in her arms a six-year-old baby girl. The child wore only a light calico dress, was barefooted and barelegged. This woman had lost husband and three brothers. "I lost four of my men folks," she cried.
